

Jessica Luff

Mobile: 0431 748 393 | Email: jessica.luff@outlook.com | LinkedIn: linkedin.com/in/jessicaluff
Portfolio: jessluff.github.io/portfolio-page | Github: github.com/JessLuff

Profile

- Graduated with Master of Biomedical Engineering and Bachelor of Mechatronic Engineering (Honours)
- Experience in biomechanical modelling and physiological simulation software in various coding languages including C++, Matlab, HTML and Javascript
- Industrial experience in product manufacturing, functional testing, government compliance and technical writing

Education

University of Sydney Coding Bootcamp 2021

- Password Generator webpage asks for password requirements and creates a randomly generated password: jessluff.github.io/password-generator
- Workday Scheduler webpage allows a user to track tasks throughout the day, broken into hourly increments: jessluff.github.io/day-planner
- Weather Dashboard webpage shows the current and forecasted weather for a searched city: jessluff.github.io/weather-dashboard

UNSW

Master of Biomedical Engineering 2019

Bachelor of Mechatronic Engineering

Higher School Certificate 2012

Gosford High School

Employment Experience

Mechatronic Engineer August 2019 – Current
Air Brake Corporation of Australia

- Collaborated with sales representatives and consulting engineers to meet customer needs and government registration standards.
- Assisted in development of new products, including ongoing testing of 3rd party products for suitability to integrate into our system and platform.
- Updated product advertisements including updating technical information, reformatting wall charts and editing brochures and flyers.

Assembly Engineer March 2018 – Dec 2019
R2P Asia Pacific

- Undertook thesis research to test new technologies for suitability to integrate into current products
- Assembled and repaired audio communication units to high quality standards, utilising soldering, wiring and manual labour skills.
- Wrote technical documentation outlining manufacturing processes for all products.

Coordinator and Instructor
Engineering World Health

Dec 2018 – Feb 2019

- Instructed classes of 35 students on electrical and mechanical laboratories
- Coordinated transport, classes, homestays and cultural experiences within the Summer Internship in Cambodia, a program which provides industrial training for university students in overseas placements
- Collaborated with and reported to head office in USA, Cambodian associates and Australian partner university
- Visited student groups in placement hospitals to provide support and advice

Volunteer Biomedical Technician
Engineering World Health

Dec 2017 – Feb 2018

Shift Manager
Coco Cubano Kensington

May 2015 – April 2018

Customer Service Team
Officeworks West Gosford

March 2013 – March 2015

Crew Member
McDonalds West Gosford

Feb 2009 – April 2013

Community Involvement and Achievements

Vice-President and Umpire
UNSW Netball Society

2018 – 2019

- Coordinated within a team of executives to manage a netball club of 120 members
- Contributed to the club weekly as an A-Grade umpire, resulting in selection as a representative umpire at the State Age Competition
- Undertook extra courses and training to improve as both an umpire and a player, earning Umpire of the Year and Most Valuable Player in 2018

Treasurer and Team Captain
UNSW Warriors Cheerleading Society

2016 – 2017

- Maintained financial records and payments for sporting club of 80 members as Treasurer of 2017, with a team of executives to organise the society
- Collaborated with coaches and executives to lead a competition level team to State and National Scholastic Champions as Captain of 2016

Senior Umpire
Coastal Waters Netball Club

2007 – 2020

- Umpired weekly to earn Senior Umpire of the Year for both 2014 and 2015
- Undertook training to advance through umpiring levels, earning the White Award of Umpiring in 2012, Gosford Award in 2014 and National C Badge Accreditation in 2015